

reflection on belonging

Think of a time you felt you truly connected to something, like you belonged or were a part of something.

How did you feel?

How did you act?

Think of a time when you felt disconnected from something, like you did not belong or were left out of something?

How did you feel?

How did you act?